- * conduct a regular review of the adequacy of the materiality thresholds and recommend changes to the Board;
- * ensure that all potential continuous disclosure matters are immediately identified and considered on a case by case basis as to whether disclosure is required under Thorn Group's legal obligations; and
- * maintain a record of matters considered for disclosure and further develop policies that promote a considered and consistent approach to disclosure.

6. Auditor Independence and Non-Audit Services

a. Importance of independent external auditor

Thorn recognises that a high quality, independent statutory audit is fundamental to the maintenance of sound corporate governance and to the proper functioning of the capital markets.

The Committee shall adopt safeguards to maintain audit independence as follows:

- * designating the types of services that may be and may not be performed by the external auditor;
- * monitoring the rotation of external auditor engagement partners at agreed intervals; and
- * ensuring that management retains responsibility for decision-making on all matters that are the subject of non-audit services provided by the external auditor.

b. Classification of non-audit services

Thorn considers that the provision of certain non-audit services and the level of non-audit fees paid to the auditor may give rise to conflicts of interest or perceived or actual loss of independence.

Thorn considers that the following services are audit services which can be provided by the external auditor:

- * statutory audits, financial statements audits or interim reviews and other procedures required to be performed to enable the external auditor to form an audit/review opinion on the financial statements of Thorn and its subsidiaries;
- * outgoings audits, required to be provided to tenants or joint venture partners under the terms of our contractual arrangements with those third parties;
- * consultations on the accounting treatment or disclosure requirements of proposed transactions or events and/or the potential impact of final or proposed rules, standards or interpretations by regulatory or standard setting bodies;
- * reports to management, the Committee or the Board arising from the conduct of the audits; and
- * other regulatory audits or reviews and related reporting obligations.

(each an 'Audit Service')

Any services which fall outside of the scope of Audit Services are regarded as 'Non-Audit Services'.

Thorn may engage the external auditor to provide Non-Audit Services which are not in conflict with the external auditor's role and will not impair the independence of the auditor. In approving any Non-Audit Service by the external auditor, management must have regard to not only any potential or actual conflicts but also the potential for perceived conflicts with the principle of independence. Thorn will only engage the external auditor for a Non-Audit Service when:

- * the external auditor is required to, or has demonstrated the best placed skill and capability to provide the relevant services; and
- * the annual fees for non-audit services in any financial year will not exceed [30%] of the annual fee for the audit services for that financial year, unless prior approval is sought from the Committee.

Subject to an assessment for each individual appointment, some Non-Audit Services where the external auditor may be engaged include:

- * tax services except where the services include advice on strategic tax planning or structuring;
- * specific review of the effectiveness of certain Thorn operations (eg. Treasury);
- * conducting internal investigations and fact finding in connection with alleged improprieties, other than where they relate to potential accounting irregularities;
- * review of compliance by Thorn's companies with local statutory regulations concerning incorporation of entities, constituent documentation and lodgement of statutory filings with regulatory bodies;

- * risk management advisory services in the assessment and testing of security controls; and
- * transaction and legal services including acquisition due diligence.

Some examples of Non-Audit Services that where the external auditor would not be engaged include:

- * accounting or bookkeeping services related to the accounting records or financial statements;
- * financial information systems implementation and design;
- * the design or implementation of internal control over financial reporting and accounting records;
- * internal audit outsourcing services;
- * employee tax assistance and compliance for employees without direct oversight role in relation to financial statements;
- * financial and or tax due diligence pertaining to acquisitions where the auditor acts for the target;
- * appraisal or independent valuations prepared for the purposes of amounts to be recognized in financial statements;
- * secondment of staff to the finance function or any areas subject of audit;
- * actuarial services;
- * management functions including acting as an employee;
- * executive or director searches; and
- * broker dealer or investment adviser services.

Irrespective of the general classification of any Non-Audit Service, if the Committee (or its delegate), the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer or the external auditor considers that in the particular circumstances in which the Non-Audit Service is to be provided, the actual or perceived independence of the external auditor may be impaired, then the external auditor will not be commissioned to provide that service.

The following table summarises the limit of authority for the approval of Non-Audit Services.

Engagement	Audit Committee	Chair, Audit Committee	CEO
Any engagement >$250,000	√
Any engagement $100,000 $250,000		√ Annual Limit $200,000
Any engagement <$50,000			√ Annual Limit $100,000

c. Periodic reporting

Twice a year the Chief Financial Officer and the external auditor will provide a report to the Committee which confirms:

- * the scope of Non-Audit Services provided by the external auditor;
- * the fees (per assignment and in aggregate) paid by Thorn for the provision of the services.
- * any other matters that may reasonably be thought to have a bearing on the external auditor's independence, and
- * a signed independence declaration from the external auditor as required by the Corporations Act.

d. Rotation of audit partners

Thorn will require the external auditor to commit to rotate the lead (or coordinating) audit partner having primary responsibility for the external audit every five years, and every other audit partner at least every seven years. A submission plan to achieve this outcome must be prepared by the auditor and submitted to the Committee for review no later than one year before the rotation is due to occur.

7. Review

This charter will be reviewed and approved on an annual basis by the Board.

The Board will review the performance of the Committee annually, with particular attention being paid to the extent to which it has met its responsibilities in terms of this charter.
